Our new truck Signage

Exciting News!

Check out our new truck signage. This is our vehicle that collects and delivers large pieces of furniture and bric-a-brac etc for our Op Shop and also collects food items for our Food bank. Keep an eye out as we support our community. Hopefully, Manchester House's presence within our community will now be far more obvious and noticeable.

Thank you to New World Feilding and our Community

We are lucky to receive New World Feilding Family 2 Family donations every year. This helps us replenish our Food bank so we can continue helping out our community in need. For every $20 bag donated from the community, New World donate a further $20 worth of assorted goods to Manchester House This initiative remains available until the 21st of May.

We welcome Karl our new Counsellor to the team.

Before becoming a counsellor, Karl worked in the education, business and health sectors. As a counsellor, he enjoys forming trusted working relationships across cultural boundaries, building rapport with people of all ages and helping marginalised members of the community find their voice and express their needs. He considers it a privilege to help clients uncover, recognise, cultivate and celebrate their abilities to face daily challenges.

HELEN O'GRADY DRAMA ACADEMY

SENIORS DRAMA CLASSES

So much Fun & plenty of Laughs! But don't take our word for it! Read these Testimonials.

"So fing funny you'll wet your pants!" Raewyn.

"Great experience. Only place I go where I can make a fool of myself on purpose. Supportive & encouraging environment. Plenty of laughs & silliness- especially from the tutor! Relaxing & enjoyable." Jocelyn.

"Great way to make new connections or have fun with a friend together! Only do this if you want to laugh harder than you have in a while! Only people with a sense of humour should do this.....come prepared to laugh!" Adele.

"This is your chance to be anybody you have ever wanted to be! A detective, a spy, or even a rebellious teenager? It is not too late in Sophia's drama classes, which are so much fun. It is never too late to discover your dramatic talent! I love Sophia's classes, and have made a whole group of new friends." Elizabeth.
